Hanging as High at Haman. In the course of Monday, April 3, and assem blage was addressed from the step of the ladies entrance to Willard's Hotel, Washington, by Vice-President Johnson, who was frequently interrupted by cheers. The enthusiasm was particularly great when he said, at the time the Southern States were talking treason, he told them to their faces in the Senate Chamber that were he President fames Buchanan, he would arrest the whole of them, and, obtaining a verdict, he would do as Heneral Jackson would have done, hang them as high as Haman for treason.
